Contributions to McCain Victory 2008 are not deductible as charitable contributions for federal income-tax purposes. McCain Victory allocates contributions to John McCain 2008, John McCain 2008 General Election Compliance Fund, the Republican National Committee, and state parties' federal accounts in compliance with federal limits. Unless a contribution would exceed federal limits or a contributor designates otherwise, McCain Victory 2008 will divide contributions as follows:

- For Individuals—The first $2,300 to JM 2008, the next $2,300 to the Compliance Fund, the next $28,500 to the RNC, and the balance of up to $37,000 will be divided evenly between the Colorado, Minnesota, New Mexico, and Wisconsin state parties' federal accounts.
- For Couples—The first $4,600 to JM 2008, the next $4,600 to the Compliance Fund, the next $57,000 to the RNC, and the balance of up to $74,000 will be divided evenly between the Colorado, Minnesota, New Mexico, and Wisconsin state parties' federal accounts.
- For Federal Multicandidate PACs—The first $5,000 to JM 2008, the next $5,000 to the Compliance Fund, the next $15,000 to the RNC, and the balance of up to $20,000 will be divided evenly between the Colorado, Minnesota, New Mexico, and Wisconsin state parties' federal accounts.

Contributions to the Compliance Fund will be used solely for legal and accounting services to ensure compliance with federal law and not for campaign activities. Compliance funds may defray a portion of broadcast advertising, national and state office "overhead", and computer/website expenses. Contributions from corporations, labor unions, federal contractors, and foreign nationals without permanent residency status to McCain Victory are prohibited. *Federal law requires us to report the name, address, occupation, and employer of any contributor who gives more than $200 in an election cycle (for JM 2008 and Compliance Fund contributions) or more than $200 in a calendar year (for RNC and state-party contributions).
